

[Party for Japanese minesweepers at Japanese Consul General's house, Pasadena, California, October 26, 1956]

Date

1956

Primary Maker

Rafu Shimpo

Description

1 photographic print : b&w ; 5 x 7 in. , 1 negative : b&w ; 4 x 5 in.;
Group portrait of Japanese and Caucasian men and women gathered for party welcoming and thanking Japanese minesweepers at the Japanese Consul General Shigeru Nakamura's house in Pasadena, California, October 26, 1956. Eight women sit in chairs and couches in front row; large group of predominantly men, some in uniform, stand in back. Chairs in foreground. Curtained window in background, left; folding screen in background, center. People identified (L to R): standing, James Wamura, Japanese Chamber of Commerce of Southern California member; Consul General Shigeru Nakamura (7th from left); Mr. Ogura (4th from right); Ikeda, JCC member (2nd from right).