

[Kichisaburo Nomura at Kawafuku restaurant, Los Angeles, California, July 2, 1961]

Date

1961

Primary Maker

Rafu Shimpo

Description

1 negative : b&w ; 4 x 5 in.; Kichisaburo Nomura at Kawafuku restaurant in Little Tokyo, Los Angeles, California, July 2, 1961. A white-haired, elder gentleman in light colored suit and eyeglasses sits in center of a couch with his hands on his knees, a cane leaning on his proper left knee. He is flanked by a woman in knee-length dress with handbag on ground and another man in a suit. Two rows of three women and two men stand behind couch. They are identified (left to right): (front row) Nomura's daughter, Kichisaburo Nomura, Yaemon Minami; (second row) Higashi, Mitsuhiro Shimizu, Mrs. Jejiro Sato, Mrs. Yoneko Narumi, Meiji Sato; (back row) Jiro Tani, unknown, Reverend Takahashi, Mr. Eto. Large artwork on wall of two women in full kimono in background. Three fusuma doors lean against wall at right. Three tea cups sit on coffee table in foreground.