

[Presentation of Mount Fuji mosaic from Mayor of Nagoya to Deputy Mayor Joseph M. Quinn at Los Angeles City Hall, Los Angeles, California, June 3, 1970]

Date

1970

Primary Maker

Rafu Shimpo

Description

1 photographic print : b&w ; 5 x 7 in. , 2 negatives : b&w ; 120 mm.

, Published in Rafu Shimpo, June 4, 1970, Japanese section, and June 12, 1970, English section.;Presentation of framed mosaic made of semi-precious stones of Mount Fuji from Nagoya, Japan Mayor Kiyoshi Sugito to Deputy Mayor Joseph M. Quinn who accepts it on behalf of Mayor Sam Yorty in Los Angeles Mayor's office in Los Angeles City Hall, Los Angeles, California, June 3, 1970. The men wear suits, one wears a beret. Also includes Quinn presenting certificate of greetings to the three men, Hideichi Esaki of Nagoya's Hobby Stone Club, Ikuho Iwashima of Nagoya's Tokai Fossil Club, and Dr. Takeo Susuki of the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) geology department and member of the West Los Angeles Japanese American Citizens' League.