

Basic Detail Report

personal hygiene , Pipes , curler , hairpin , buckle, belt , pin , marble

Date

1937-1945

Medium

wood, metal, glass, plastic

Description

30 relics, ranging from a woman's hairpin to bottle opener, recovered from the former site of Topaz by Ronald B. WalksHorse.

1. Block 35 area; man's pipe bowl 2. Block 23 area; tooth or talc powder can 3. Block 23 area; woman's metal curler for hair 4. Block 29 area; woman's hairpin 5. Block 35 area; woman's lipstick cover 6. Block 29 area; child's blue plastic submarine toy 7. Block 12 area; coat belt buckle, corroded 8. Block 12 area; men's shoe heel tap 9. Block 12 area; spectacle lens 10. Block 35 area; 5 safety pins 11. Block 14 area; baby bottle stopper lid 12. Block 14 area; clothes pin 13. Block 14 area; half of scissors, corroded 14. Block 35 area; 6 1/2 child's marbles 15. Block 11 area; end of toothbrush 16. Block 11 area; buckles off galoshes 17. Block 10 area; woman's lipstick container 18. Block 10 area; condiment fork, pronged portion 19. Block 10 area; pocket watch casing 20. Block site of elementary school; part of pencil and eraser 21. School site; electric fuse 22. Block 32 area; 2 barracks door keys 23. Block 32 mess area; bottle opener 24. Block 32 area; ceramic sherd 25. Block 32 mess area; teaspoon, corroded 26. Block 32 area; haircomb, warped 27. School site area; glue bottle, empty 28. Mess 29 area; baking power measuring cup, corroded metal 29. [bag mislabeled as 30] Block 29 area; Laughter [brand] cologne bottle 30. Block 29 area; decorative brass coat button.