

Basic Detail Report

[Denim tabi, Waipahu, Hawaii, 1922]

Date

1922

Primary Maker

Kumasaka, Kaku

Medium

denim, cotton

Description

1 pair of tabi ; right 9.5 x 4.5 x 6.5 in., left 10 x 5 x 6.25 in.; Japanese style footwear (tabi socks) made from denim with sole, heel and big toe reinforced with scrap material and threads. There is a two button closure above heel and the big toe is separated from the other toes with an interior divider. The sole is thicker than rest of tabi and curves upward at front. Both tabi: heel exterior is reinforced with black scrap material and leftover threads; back opening is lined with off-white material with green print. Left tabi: Back opening is lined with red, black and white print material on right side.

Dimensions

L: 9.5 x 10 in, W: 4.5 x 5 in, H: 6.5 x 6.25 in