

Basic Detail Report

[Receiving hostile looks while traveling by bus, Berkeley, California, 1941-42]

Date

1942-1944

Primary Maker

Miné Okubo

Medium

paper, ink

Description

1 drawing on paper : ink ; image 9.25 x 13 in., matted 16 x 20 in.; A woman with flipped forelock of hair, Mine Okubo, sits on a train as other passengers turn to look at her, California during World War

II. Viewed through the window of train, Mine wears a triangle patterned blouse as she sits with her arms crossed. A spectacled woman and a woman in a hat sitting in row in front turn around in seat to look at her. Other passengers in hats turn as well.

Dimensions

H: 9.25 in, W: 13 in