

[Mine sleeping on a cot in her barrack,
Tanforan Assembly Center, San Bruno, California, 1942]

Date
1942-1944

Primary Maker
Miné Okubo

Medium
paper, ink, mat board

Description

1 drawing on paper : ink ; image 9.25 x 13 in., matted 16 x 20 in.;A woman with flipped forelock of hair, Mine Okubo, lies in bed under a U.S. Army blanket looking at the two mice looking at her from the foot of her bed at Tanforan Assembly Center, California during World War II. Mine's head rests on a pillow at top left as she clutches the top of her blanket with her legs bent underneath the covers. The two mice sit on railing of spring cot at right. A box is directly under foot of bed; a pair of shoes rest on the floor in foreground; bedside table at bottom left. Spider sits in web at top right.

Dimensions
H: 9.25 in, W: 13 in