

[Geta with light brown velvet straps]

Date

1900-1960

Medium

wood, velvet

Description

Japanese style wooden slippers handcarved from guava tree wood is composed of a baseboard (dai) resting on two supporting pieces (ha or teeth) below and a velvet strap that is secured at the front middle of the baseboard and at sides of the foot. The geta are identical in shape: right (A) and left (B) side. Straps faded on top.;1 pair of geta with light brown velvet straps ; each 9 x 4.125 x 2.5 in.

Dimensions

L: 9.0 in, W: 4.125 in, H: 2.75 in