

Basic Detail Report

[Guava wood geta, Waialua, Hawaii, 193-]

Date

1930-1939

Primary Maker

Kibota, Haruo

Medium

wood, leather

Description

1 pair of light brown geta (raised wooden slippers) : guava wood, leather ; 8.5 x 3.5 x 1.5 in.; Japanese style slippers handcarved from single piece of guava wood and has brown leather straps that are secured at the front middle of base with knot on the underside between the toes and at sides of foot with tiny nails. The geta are identical in shape: right (A) and left (B) side. There is white paint on the underside where leather straps are attached. Knot in wood near strap of left side.

Dimensions

L: 8.5 in, W: 3.5 in, H: 1.5 in