

Basic Detail Report

[Community toilets, Tanforan Assembly Center, San Bruno, California, 1942]

Date

1942-1944

Primary Maker

Miné Okubo

Medium

paper, ink, mat board

Description

1 drawing on paper : ink ; image 9.25 x 13 in., matted 16 x 20 in.; A woman with flipped forelock of hair, Mine Okubo, walks through the women's community toilet at Tanforan Assembly Center,

California during World War II. Dressed in cross-patterned top and jeans, Mine is visible full-length as she walks at end of stalls holding a cloth in hand at far right. Three women sit in partitioned stalls that lack doors. Seeking privacy, one woman sits behind a patched curtain, another covers her face near a pot that appears to be an incense burner, and third woman sits behind boards nailed together.

Dimensions

H: 9.25 in, W: 13 in