

Basic Detail Report

[To Rohwer mural]

Date

1944

Primary Maker

Muramoto, Walter

Description

Mural titled, "To Rohwer," painted by high school student, Nobie Tanimoto, is propped on sawhorses against wall of wooden building at Rohwer concentration camp, Rohwer, Arkansas, 1944-1945. Mural depicts the train ride to Rohwer camp, featuring a freight train in foreground, passing three landscapes of farm, people picking cotton and mangroves in swamp with lightening storm; sunset over trees segues into an image of the Rohwer mascot, Lil' Daniel, above rows of barracks surrounded by barbed wire and a watchtower. Signed at lower right: Nobie F. Tanimoto 1944. Young man in dark shirt and trousers stands by panel at L. Image has irregular scalloped border. Appears to be a different version from mural in JANM collection (88.25.125F).;1 photographic print : b&w

Dimensions

H: 2.5 in, W: 3.625 in