

RICE SENIOR CLASS SONG 38

San Di- e- go we salute you comrade dear and true Years may pass, we'll still re-call your steadfast white and blue, With this June class of thirty eight your memory will stay, And ever echo in our heart Dear old castle gray.

I.
San Diego, we salute you
Comrade dear and true,
Years may pass, we'll still recall
Your steadfast white and blue,
With this June class of thirty eight
Your memory will stay,
And ever echo in our hearts
Dear old castle gray.

II.
San Diego we'll be faithful
To your standards high
Long may be your victory
Long may your colors fly
With our class song of thirty eight
On this our fateful day
We give you thanks for guidance true
Dear old castle gray.

Senior Class Song 1938

Date
1938

Description

A Senior Class Song written for the 1938 San Diego High School by a person called Rice. Notes are drawn by hand and lyrics are typed.

Dimensions

H: 13. in, W: 8.5 in