

Basic Detail Report

[Arrival at the port of New York, 1939]

Date

1942-1944

Primary Maker

Miné Okubo

Medium

paper, ink

Description

1 drawing on paper : ink ; image 10 x 14.5 in., matted 16 x 20 in.; A woman with flipped forelock of hair and tiny beret, Mine Okubo, stands with her luggage after arriving from France via boat in New York City before the United States entered World War II. Dressed in a jacket, Mine clutches her bag and coat to her body in foreground left, looking towards the left. Her suitcases and trunk sit next to her. People gathered at midground greet and wave to people disembarking the boat in the background.

Dimensions

H: 10 in, W: 14.5 in