Description

Stretched. Image of an enclave of a street in Spain. Two men stand outside of a coffee counter underneath an archway of an apartment. Potted plants line one of the upper balconies with a clothesline with towels drying; a large cement structure (left) suggest the viewer is positioned at the front of a small alleyway sometime in the morning. Cracks and missing plaster in walls detail age and worn-in character. [See 2015.7.346]
