Basic Detail Report

a climate here with high humiti at veature is comettuile terriled mornings a evenings and getting but mornings a cornings and getting but mornings a cornings and getting locate - new lorleaus blooth, busily packing househows blooth, busily means the tail man again means the tail man again means the tail man again to hear are a this month. I have a some as par finished to be a affairs back with he back to cincole - prepare to leave to part as some as par finished to server a the tail prepare to leave to part as come as par finished to server a star back with he back to cincole - prepare to leave to server a sallowable -the day while you can be a busky all old x bush can be tar canful a chemist never can the tar canful. Take fand can by sally Paye, ley e 9 Dav

[Letter to Kotaro Murai from Koh, August 8, 1945]

Date 1945

Primary Maker Murai, Koh

Medium

paper, ink

Description

1 letter written on a 3-ring lined composition paper to Kotaro from Kotaro's father, Koh Murai, on August 6, 1945 from Rohwer Concentration Camp. Koh writes to his son that he had a pleasant train ride and arrived to Rohwer on August 3rd, mentions the climate, the Izumi family and Mrs. Nasu will relocate to New Orleans, as soon as he finishes the affairs at Rohwer he will return to Lincoln and head to Denver.