Description

One calligraphy scroll. Japanese calligraphy in black sumi ink on light tan textured paper. There are five large characters down the center. Near the bottom to the left side, in smaller writing, is a column of three characters and two faded square orange hanko stamps. In the UR corner is a vertical rectangular reddish orange hanko stamp. The calligraphy scroll is mounted on a pale mint green paper with a tiny silver square pattern. The background paper extends 12" above the scroll and 10" below the scroll.
