Description

1 envelope, 2 paged letters. Written to Nobuko Nakamura, George Nakamura's sister, from Beverly Fitting in La Crosse, Wisconsin, dated July 26, 1944 at 9:30 pm. The letter writes about George being moved into various hospitals. The letter is partially torn on one side, resulting in lost text. On recto of envelope, green Air 20 cent stamps on right; postmark reads, "La Crosse / July 28 / 1 PM / 1944 / WIS". Address from Beverly is from La Crosse, Wisconsin to Nobuko in Olaa, Hawaii. Transcription: Dear Nobuko, The reason I [didn't] write to you back [the] day I received [your] letter was [because] I thought maybe [I] could tell you some thing about George. We wrote to that hospital in Kentucky and received word that he had been transferred to a Station Hospital in Fort Lewis, Washington on June 29th. So now we have written [them] Have you heard [from] the Red Cross yet? Yesterday at work I was put on the ribbon counter [which] I like very [much ___] had been working pretty steady on [the] hardware counter. [And] today they even trusted me at the candy counter. Last Mon. I had a tooth pulled which didn't feel very good, but I'm glad it's out. That's about all I can think of for now. I sure hope I hear soon about George and that every- thing's O.K. Lots of Love [Beverly] P.S.
