Description
(3) page letter written on recto and verso to Mas Iwate from

Tatsumi Iwate in Camp Carson, Colorado written on September 27, 1942. Tatsumi writes aback to Mas on a soldier's life on the battle front, how one might not be safe being away from the front line, how a truck was turning to enter the bar and hay stacks got loose and fell fifteen feet, that it doesn't make a difference if he goes to the front lines or not.
